DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Build: Large

Race: White

Remarks: The main suspect is described as a White male wearing a black "coverall" suit. The suspect can be seen in security photos wearing a baseball cap with the "Chevrolet" logo.

Vehicle Information: The main suspect stole a bank employee's vehicle during the robbery. The stolen vehicle was recovered shortly after the robbery.

Weapon Used: .45 caliber or smaller pistol.

CAUTION

At approximately 9:35 a.m., on Thursday, August 4, 2016, the First Bank of Osyka was robbed at gunpoint. The suspect is described as a White male wearing a black "coverall" suit. As the suspect entered the bank, he pulled a black mesh net over his head, and displayed a .45 caliber or smaller pistol and demanded money. The suspect was able to get away with an unknown amount of money.

Two additional suspects possibly purchased materials used in the robbery. The suspects are described as a White male, medium build, early-to-mid 40s with short brown hair. At the time of purchase, he was wearing a white shirt, khaki cargo shorts and light sneakers. The second suspect is described as a White male, small build, late teens or early 20s with shaggy brown hair. At the time of purchase, he was wearing a blue "Nike" shirt and khaki shorts.
